

Extra Protection While You Travel Overseas

TravelAid*: Help in an Uncertain World

Your Safety Net While Traveling

Would you know what to do if an unexpected illness or crisis happens while traveling abroad? Would you know how to find a physician or hospital or how to reach your embassy? Most people wouldn't.

Your employer has worked with Guardian to make TravelAid, a travel assistance service, available to eligible members. TravelAid has a network of global resources including medical centers, air ambulances and travel assistance in every country to help you through any emergency. The TravelAid network is around the clock to help ensure that you get the help you need...when you need it.

TravelAid provides a range of travel services to eligible members to help with issues related to:

- Emergency Travel Arrangements
- Embassy & consular Assistance
- Lost Document Assistance
- World Wide Physician & Hospital Referrals
- Emergency Prescription Replacement
- Medical Transportation
- Joining of Disabled Family Member
